

BERRYMAY GAZETTE

Law & Order!

Lorelei and Eric spent some time making a Law & Order show about Berrymay. Lorelei stayed up a little late making the movie, so then she went to bed. Dad edited the movie and when he brought it up to show Mom, Lorelei heard it and got out of bed to watch the show.

The next day, Eric added sounds, music, and laughter to the movie to make it even better. Everyone who has seen it loves the movie.

No animals were hurt in the making of the movie, but Eric was punched many times.

Finally Swimming!

On Father's Day, Eric and Lorelei went to High Point to see Gaga and Pops, and Seth was there too. The pool was open so they swam! Every time there was a break for the kids, they ate. Lorelei made two friends at the pool. After a few hours of swimming, they went to dinner. Lorelei kept complaining about the wait. They finally had dinner and went home.

Sleepover at the Riddles

Lorelei and Eric went over to the Riddles house for a sleepover.

At first, Evelyn and Lorelei did not play together, then they went to pick up dinner. When they came back, they had dinner. After that, they watched a movie, then later, they went down to the basement.

While the grown-ups were talking in the basement, the kids watched some shows together. Then, later on, they went to work out. Lorelei did the rowing machine, while Evelyn went on the treadmill. Evelyn also did some gymnastics stuff on a pole. Lorelei ran on the treadmill too.

After that, they went to bed. In the morning, Evelyn got up before Lorelei and watched her iPad. Lorelei eventually got up. At first, Lorelei didn't want to eat her breakfast, but she did eventually. After that, Lorelei and Eric went home while the Riddles went horseback riding.

After they did horseback riding, the Riddles found that Lorelei had left her toothpaste and toothbrush and brought these to Lorelei. While the kids were playing upstairs with Daisy, the grownups talked and soon they had lunch.

Then, the Riddles visited Berrymay and Evelyn accidentally broke a law and had to pay a dollar. Eric gave Evelyn the dollar to pay her fine, but he also made a criminal record for her so that she is now one of us. Then, the riddles went home. The end.
